SMOKING KILLS

EXT. ROAD - DAY

MAN (25) walks down the street, looks as he goes to cross the street.

No cars are in his sight, the man walks onto the road, reaches into his pocket, grabs a cigarette and lighter, goes to light his cigarette, but drops the lighter.

He stops, leans down to pick up the lighter. From out of nowhere, a car screeches and hits the man, knocking him hard.

Shot of man lying on the concrete, dead.

CARD: "Smoking Kills."
